Whether your business is small, medium or big, choose from one of Panasonic's family range of Laser Multi-Function Printers to help you to greater success.

Whatever the demands of your business may be, Panasonic's range of Laser Multi-Function Printers present a host of benefits like nothing before.

All-in-One

By bringing together a Printer, Copier, Scanner and Fax into a single unit, you maximize the efficient use of valuable office and desktop space while increasing your office productivity.

High Performance Printing

- Hi-speed printing of up to 32ppm allows you to efficiently complete print jobs quickly, meaning less wastage on waiting time. Our high-yield toners are ideal for high volume printing, translating into a lower cost-per-page.
- Value-added tools like the Automatic Document Feeder, large paper trays and robust memory allow you to perform printing jobs faster and more efficiently.
- Duplex printing function allows for double-sided printing. This means reducing paper wastage and helps lower office costs.
- Other high-performance features include booklet printing, overlay printing and poster feature.

Convenient Copy Functions

Versatile copy functions such as Quick ID Copy and Image Repeat allows you to perform common tasks such as copying both sides of business cards and fitting them in 2-in-1, 4-in-1 or 8-in-1 format on a single page.

Scan With Ease

With the Scan to Email and Scan Once, Email Many functions, hard copy documents can be easily disseminated and shared digitally within the workgroup as PDF, JPEGs or TIFF files.

Fast and Efficient faxing

- Convenient fax functions such as 33.6kbps Super G3 Fax, phonebook of up to 300 numbers and one-touch dial function, allows for fast and efficient fax transmissions.
- Save paper by previewing incoming faxes on the Web Preview function or the colour LCD display.

Above features are only available in selected models.

For home offices

Compact in design and stylish in looks. Fits your work style just the way you want it. Its multi-functional features and great affordability allow your homegrown business to be as productive as you drive it. And as effective as these range of printers are, they are efficient in taking up your home space.
